Key Responsibilities:

Develop and execute the company's long-term vision, strategic plans, and growth objectives to enhance shareholder value and achieve sustainable financial performance.

Provide strong leadership, guiding the executive team in the effective implementation of strategic initiatives and ensuring alignment with the company's mission and values.

Oversee financial performance and budgetary processes, ensuring adherence to financial targets and optimizing operational efficiency.

Foster a culture of innovation, collaboration, and accountability throughout the organization, driving continuous improvement and talent development.

Maintain open and transparent communication with the Board of Directors, shareholders, and regulatory authorities, keeping them informed of the company's performance and major developments.

Stay abreast of market trends, industry dynamics, and regulatory changes, evaluating their impact on the company and driving proactive responses.

Lead mergers and acquisitions activities, identifying potential opportunities for growth and expansion while mitigating risks.

Represent the company in external forums, industry events, and with key stakeholders, enhancing its reputation and visibility in the market.

Ensure compliance with all relevant laws, regulations, and governance practices, promoting ethical conduct at all levels of the organization.

Take charge of crisis management, guiding the company through challenging situations with poise and confidence.

Qualifications and Requirements:

Proven track record as a CEO or top executive in a publicly-listed company.

Demonstrated success in driving business growth, improving financial performance, and delivering shareholder value.

Comprehensive understanding of corporate governance, financial markets, and regulatory requirements applicable to listed companies.

Strong strategic vision and the ability to translate it into actionable plans and measurable outcomes.

Outstanding leadership and decision-making skills, with the capacity to inspire and mentor a diverse team.

Excellent communication and stakeholder management capabilities, including engagement with investors and media.

Demonstrated experience in leading successful mergers and acquisitions activities.

Bachelor's degree in Business, Finance, or a related field. An MBA or relevant postgraduate degree is desirable.

A commitment to ethical business practices and a dedication to corporate social responsibility.
