Our partner is an instantly recognisable fitness brand that continues to deliver fun and action-filled workouts across the world.

We are delighted to be supporting their search for a group fitness trainer who will lead approximately 100 classes per month with an established flow of members.

Job Details:

A certified trainer from a reputable training body, the successful candidate will be self-motivated, reliable, have good experience in delivering small group training, be an excellent communicator and have a high degree of personal fitness.

We are especially interested in speaking with candidates who are ready and able to immerse themselves in the wider operations of the studio to ensure a fantastic member experience both in and out of the studio, including but certainly not limited to social media engagement, member acquisition and retention and the setting up and cleaning of the studio.

The Middle East is unquestionably one of the fastest-growing regions within the global leisure industry and provides significant career opportunities and rewards for the successful candidate.

Only shortlisted candidates will be invited to submit a video introduction before an online interview with a member of the gofitjobs team.

Successful candidates will be supported during the visa application process by the employer if required.

Accommodation is not offered for this vacancy.
